CREATIVE THOUGHT[®]

FOR EACH DAY

RELIGIOUS SCIENCE[®]

THOUGHTS FROM THE EDITOR ...

THE MASKS we sometimes wear in our daily lives are very interesting; in fact, they are remarkable. To look happy on the outside while feeling miserable on the inside is certainly one of humanity's most sophisticated abilities.

Are our masks violations of our integrity? Is it honest to look happy while feeling unhappy? Yes, it is honest, because the mask is a true reflection of the thought (not the feeling) behind it. Having determined to represent joy to our associates, we act according to that determination, refusing to let negative emotions dictate our demeanor.

Whatever is going on in our realm of feeling, the mask of happiness is worth maintaining, because pleasant ways harmonize our relationships. But this is not the only benefit of pleasantness portrayed. As we wear a pleasant face our feelings start swinging into line. The joy that we choose to personify eventually becomes a reality.

Know What Is Involved

Robert H. Bitzer

TO SOME, life seems to be a series of repeats with people called back to complete what they should have done right the first time. A comprehension of the situation involved will reveal ways and means for doing it right. This attention is a NOW quality, applying our thought at the point where we are. No sense of time enters, no past and no future. The awareness of the present moment gives our attention its power. Don't let your mind lapse back to something that happened two hours before nor jump ahead to what you are going to do tomorrow. Become completely aware of who you are right now, the reality of this moment.

Our true self-recognition is the universal Mind knowing itself as us. No thought of growth or progress. No thought of what has to be accomplished, but an identity of the self with infinite Intelligence at this very moment. In consciousness we are not getting ready to do something nor trying to work something out. Our full attention is focused on the realization that the one Mind in us now knows all that we need to know, and its right knowingness is instantly manifest as immediate right action. Recognize the greatness and immensity of this one Mind. It is truly omnipotent because there is nothing it cannot bring about. It dissolves erroneous beliefs. It wipes out frustrations. It brings such great illumination to a person's mind that he really sees his individualized world as divine order.

Throughout the ages, men have experienced instantaneous healing. The most brutal and persistent persecutor of the Christians, Paul, was suddenly struck by the overpowering Presence of love and immediately became one of the greatest backers of the new religion. He was instantaneously healed of bigotry. People have been known to drop limitations like a lightning flash. Man is instantly healed when he accepts the immensity of this power greater than himself. It makes its greatness felt by the person healed. All these instances reaffirm that when man rises in consciousness and recognizes he is one now with all-powerful infinite Mind, the perfection and wholeness of this Mind right this moment can become his experience. This awareness of the oneness of perfection is called instantaneous healing.

There Is Always An Answer

Juanella Evans

CHANGING times only reveal the complete adequacy of the Universal Mind. Infinite Intelligence always knows the answers to everything. There is no challenge beyond a satisfactory completion. Every human experience shows the divine equivalent of God in man as man. Although scenes and needs are varied, in a personal life or the life of a nation, the same basic principle of ONE can be applied. The fullness of divine substance permeates all. The wisdom of God meets every demand with poise and wholeness.

Let the concepts of all-knowingness into your life. Man's history has not diminished the possibilities of the Infinite. A new thing is ready to spring into your life as solution. Be of good courage; your attitude becomes your answer. Use the enlightened mind available to you. This is not to fool yourself but to become wise to yourself. The tenderness of God's love is responsive to you by means of God's immutable law. Affirm rightness and see solutions appear. Within you is the answer to everything.

True Identity

Tom Johnson

THERE IS an inner urge within all of us for the more. We hunger for change, for the greater expression of our unique resources and talents. If we do not respond to this hunger we begin to find life a bore, a status-quo arrangement, and thus we begin to die.

Within our Self-awareness there is a built-in need for greater awareness and greater expression, regardless of how old or young we are. Most of us seek satisfaction in what the world says we should be or do. We seek it in marriage, or divorce. We seek it in having the security of pensions, a safe job, a house, and various people we can depend upon. But in reality we can depend upon no one and no thing. People and things come into our lives to go out of our lives. All we have is our Self-awareness, which attracts and repels. Within our Self-awareness is the urge for the more, the new, the different. And that urge is directing the law of mind so that we will have that expansion and change, one way or another.

Only in knowing your true identity do you experience the excitement of eternal growth, eternal expansion. What we require for one phase of our livingness we do not need for another. The job that we thought was so absolutely essential to our fulfillment is no longer right as we move along into the ever upward spiral of Self-discovery. It was a step along the way. Only through the identity of the True Self, God as you, are you eternally free, because this identity is always growing and expanding in expression.

Your true identity causes you to live in an always greater way, never a lesser. This is the secret of never growing old. In Self-awareness there is no such thing as retirement. Our society has not included plans for the elderly, except to exclude them, because only recently people have been living longer and longer. Living is still an individual responsibility, an experience of Self-awareness, and it always will be. Knowing your true identity, you welcome change and are equipped to handle it. Believe in your expanding awareness of Self and you always have all that you need.

Continuing Unfoldment

Joseph J. Bayer

MUCH of our freedom in the present is greatly qualified by reassociation with the past. Often we remember hurts and forget joys and blessings. We need to realize that all steps taken have brought us to our present situations, whether good or bad, and we can improve those situations.

We should constantly recall our origin in God and our daily sustenance and guidance by God, the Presence that indwells us as the true Self of each of us. God works for us by working through us, and only by our mental acceptance of this truth do we permit the unfoldment of the Divine nature we embody. Recalling again and again that "it is God's good pleasure to give us the kingdom," we are recreated by infinite Mind and prospered by infinite Love.

It is our Divine destiny to rise above beliefs in limitation. As we do this, we allow constant manifestation of limitless good. The God Mind that created us sustains us, unfolds our good before us and leads us in ways of freedom, health, prosperity and joy.

Home Is Rooted In God

Erna Wissmann

IT IS OFTEN said that we are living in a very materialistic age and that man is interested only in what he can see and get. Perhaps there are many people who think that way, but on the other hand there are millions of people who are interested in the spiritual aspects of life.

According to the historian, Mercie Eliade, since time immemorial the home has been considered a sacred place, whether it is one room or a mansion. Home is a place that deserves reverence and respect. You lock your door against intruders and so your home is "sacred"; it belongs to you, and its meaning includes its contents, memories and associations. When you are bothered with a problem, is it not in the sacred precincts of your home that you find peace and solve your dilemma? The environment of home is comforting and helps you through any maze of discontent to the place in mind where you regain your equilibrium.

Your home is where your roots are. People who are constantly on the go, who have not learned to live with themselves, are really denying the inner Christ of their being. Emerson thought the home was very important. He said, "Wealth begins in a tight roof that keeps rain and wind out . . ." When homes in any area are destroyed by tornadoes, earthquakes or floods, the courage of the people is wonderful. They immediately start rebuilding. Something better and finer rises out of the ruins.

Now let us think about the temple each of us lives in, the wonderful body that houses soul and spirit. In your home, your sacred spot, you can always remind yourself that innately you are a spiritual being with a great potential. The Bible says, ". . . know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God . . . ?" (I Corinthians 6:19.)

Do you need to strengthen or heal your body temple? Do you need to rebuild your world? Take courage; you can do it! The writer of "The Glorious Presence" says, "Be brave then, and face the world with clear thoughts, intelligent love and enlightened will." Home and self are closely tied together. Bless yourself and your home, and joy in its fullness can be yours.

Establishing Communication

Earl D. Barnum

ONE OF the greatest needs in our world today is the need for better communication. Almost all our problems arise because we fail to understand fully. Apparently man needs some ingredient added to mere words in order to convey his message more clearly. If communication breaks down in the home, usually a quarrel ensues or, even worse, a long silence of withdrawal or childish pouting. On a greater scale, misunderstanding carries into industry, community and international affairs. War is the end result of the breakdown between nations.

Perhaps the missing ingredient is interest, honest interest in what the other person is saying, an interest that goes deeper than the word, that actually goes behind the word and helps to draw out the real significance of what is being said.

As we first, by daily meditation and treatment, establish union with God within us and within all others, we can achieve mutual understanding with our fellowman. By entering into the consciousness of true Oneness, we sense deeply our spiritual kinship with all. Feelings of estrangement dissolve as we absorb the wisdom of the eternal Spirit and are in communion with its infinite love. Filled with the consciousness of understanding, we find we communicate easily and lovingly with our family, friends and business associates. We think clearly and speak convincingly because we say what we mean and mean what we say. Love and vitality go into our thoughts and words, and true cooperation is established and strengthened.

The awareness of the oneness of life enables us to relate harmoniously to other people. In every life situation—at home, at work, at leisure—our relationships are bettered, for love speaks through us. Recognizing ourselves and others as divine beings, we listen to other people's views with sincere interest, thereby providing the vital ingredient that is so often missing from communication. And because we are free from prejudice and premature conclusions, we are listened to with deep understanding. We consciously improve communications with everyone for we are consciously at one with all.

Thought Is Always Creating

Dorothy B. Lunde

OUR THINKING is the greatest tool we possess. Even as wires and switches are necessary for the direction of electrical current flow, thinking is necessary as the directive of a purely impersonal force. Idle passing thoughts have no power of themselves, but we lend them power when we become concerned with them.

A treatment is a recognition of the fact that we are part of a power that is ready and willing to come forth as the object of our selection, be it health, harmony or abundance. We know that God is ALL. If we desire to be more than we are presently aware of being, we must be aware of GOD BEING ALL, then we become aware of GOD BEING US. Our thinking does not change our being but it does enable us to become aware of what we really are.

Creative Thought in Action

The spiritual mind treatments on the following pages affirm truths of spiritual being. When these truths are recognized and incorporated into consciousness, the Law of Mind brings their expression into experience.

I EXPERIENCE DIRECT KNOWING

MIND IN ME is the very essence of light, life and love. I am a participant of this activity right now. As light, I shine and I am an illuminating influence to all whom I contact. As life, I am an animating principle in the world. As love, I embody a universal givingness which operates in the consciousness of man.

In this awareness I develop more keenly the powers of observation, choice and decision. I perceive the interrelationship of Mind and Its action, and man and his reaction. I know there is an impersonal as well as an interpersonal quality of the action of Mind. I know that Mind power, when specifically and purposefully directed, produces greater concepts of my beingness and an expansion in all areas of my life. I am wholeness. I am abundance. I am love. I am order. I am life. I am wisdom.

I now use wisdom to glean knowledge, which intelligence directs into paths of perfect peace, power and plenty. And so it is.

MY LIFE IS DYNAMIC CREATIVITY

THERE IS one life experience, one all-infusing, all-knowing creative process which is ever persistent to bring into expression the fulfillment of its every good. I open my mind today to reaffirm my unity with this creative flow by recognizing the divine intention which is the essence of the creative urge within me. I am secure in the knowledge that my response to this urge is in tune with the highest principles of life and, as such, is broadening my awareness of my own infinite power for good.

I am motivated by Mind in its divine omniscience, I am protected by Mind in its divine omnipresence, and I express in ever-increasing abundance the omnipotence of the universal creative principle. I release all elements of race belief that could stifle my creativity and I accept with thanks the reorganization of my circumstances and affairs to manifest my perfect good. I believe in the dynamic creative action of life and in so doing I establish my unreserved belief in me.

I AM SPIRITUALLY AGGRESSIVE

THAT WHICH Mind thinks, Mind creates. My thought is the movement of the creative power into form. I think with clarity and with conviction. I know that which I am expressing and give all the power of my spiritual awareness to it. I consciously project the experiences I want. Nothing can stop this creativeness, for there is no force to oppose Spirit.

My spiritual aggressiveness is not competitive nor argumentative. That which I know, I know. This self-knowingness is all power. It expresses itself without effort and with great joy. It animates every condition in my life so that only that which conforms to the pattern of perfect God, perfect man and perfect being can have any place in my expression.

My spiritual aggressiveness is the great affirmative of life expressing its own power. Infinite Mind is self-knowing at every point of its expression. I am the positiveness of Infinite Mind expressing constructively.

I TAKE CHARGE OF MY THOUGHT

I BELIEVE in my Self and am fully cognizant of Who and What I am. I am an ideal individualization of God Itself in full expression. I am strong and sure in my purpose and in the expression of my Ideal Self.

I know how to say no to all that does not harmonize with my purpose in being. I am disciplined in my use of thought and am therefore the authority in my individual universe. I am in charge of all that I think, say and do. I am in charge of all that I express and give. I respect Who and What I am and so I live boldly by this inner authority.

I take charge of my thought and time. Every thought and every moment counts for something. Nothing is wasted; all is purposeful. Wherever I am, order is established and love is expressed. I believe in my Self, God as me, and so am free to fearlessly and easily express my divinity. God-awareness keeps me ever on course.

I AM THE JOY OF LIVING

GOD, the one Mind, rejoices in Its creative process, and I am this creative process in action. In my consciousness God's action is now and it is complete. It is a joyous action. As I contemplate this I have a great sense of well-being. In love, joy and peace I function accurately and easily. I am glad that I am alive this day.

My consciousness is centered in creative ideas. I do not mourn the past. I am a today person in a today experience and it is wonderful. The best is yet to be and it will be for I shall cause it to happen. In my consciousness right now is every idea I need to be happy and free.

All Life supports me in my rejoicing. All Mind inspires me with ideas that bring forth happiness. I am the joy of living and I impart this to others. I am clear of all doubt and fear. I know the Truth and I live as the Truth, for I am the Truth.

I AM A PERFECTLY BALANCED PERSON

THE BALANCE-WHEEL of God that maintains perfect order in the universe is the same law that produces perfect balance within me. As I align my consciousness with Infinite Mind I experience perfect balance in all things. Since I am now in tune with Divine Mind I experience the attributes of Divine Mind. Thus I am in perfect equilibrium in every phase of my life.

My emotions are now stable because I am aware of my unity with all of life. I am free to express my creative ability. As I see the working of Divine Law as a balance in nature and realize that I, too, am a part of this perfect balance, I am released to express life in a perfectly natural way. I enjoy perfect physical health because all physical functions of my body are in balance. I am mentally alert and emotionally relaxed, for balance supervises all functions. I am filled with love, peace and understanding. I accept all responsibilities with enthusiasm and perform all work with joy and diligence. I am a perfectly balanced person.

I AM THE CHANNEL OF INFINITE LOVE

EVERY DAY I take one step closer to the perfection that is my destiny. I learn how to accept greater good and thus open the way for the love of God to flow more freely through me.

My activities bring me a sense of fulfillment. There is no wasted time as I go about the business of God. I unite with Divine Mind and come out of any darkness of the past into my bright, happy future. As I discover myself I accept myself as an open channel of God's love. I embody the perfection of the Infinite. As God is, so am I. There is no beginning or ending with God. There is no place where God leaves off and I start. Oneness with God is the continuity of my life.

I realize I am no longer a child of God but am now an adult of God, with all the responsibilities of an adult. I give thanks to God that I am the channel for the wonder of life called love. And I let it be so.

I COOPERATE WITH LIFE

I RECOGNIZE that Life is the animating principle of the universe. I am aware that life is beautiful and that to experience the utmost health, joy, happiness and prosperity I must fully cooperate with its laws. As the life force pulsates through my being I am motivated to work with creative ideas and see them take form. My plans are executed in an orderly manner and I work with the rhythm of the universe. I fill my subjective mind with purposeful thoughts, nurture them with loving interest, and my affairs thrive and prosper.

I believe in a good universe, sustained by the power of Divine Mind. I allow this Mind to think through me and as me. All discordant appearances fade away when bathed in the sunshine of goodwill, and every circumstance yields its own blessing. I do not envy anyone nor compete with others. I give of the unique gifts with which God has endowed me and accept my goodly heritage. I give thanks for the sheer joy of being alive.

DESIRE AND FULFILLMENT ARE ONE

IACKNOWLEDGE my oneness with the Creative Mind which is both idea and substance, thought and thing. As Infinite Intelligence It knows no limitation. I accept myself as a conveyance of the Creative Process through which specific divine ideas pass in a sequential evolution from thought to thing.

Being one with that which is limitless, I am not bound by limitation. I am totally receptive to that which presses to express through me. I like being the prolific vehicle through which the Creative Mind reveals Itself as me. I know that it is the Father's good pleasure to give me the kingdom, and I accept it graciously and with gratitude.

Because each divine idea that presses to express through me as my desire is in itself whole, perfect and complete, I know there is nothing to be added by me. Nothing compels me to look outside my consciousness for that which is already fulfilled in Mind. Desire and fulfillment are one, and I give thanks for my realization.

ALL IS NOW

BEHOLD, I make all things new! All day long I dwell on this magnificent promise of God. Yesterday has gone forever. Now is the only moment that is real and creative, and I refuse to spoil one split second thinking about the mistakes of yesterday. Now I am healthy, happy and free. Now I am prospered and successful in everything I do. Because this beautiful moment will never return, I rejoice in it, make the most of it, and give grateful thanks for the sheer joy of living.

I know that gratitude increases by blessings, therefore I do give thanks for the glory of this new day, for the beauty of nature, for the food I eat and the health I enjoy, and for the ability to work and enjoy the companionship of so many loving friends.

I freely forgive all people and I forgive myself for ever holding any thought unlike the nature of God. All heaviness is dispelled as the dawn swallows up the darkness of the night and the new day is born.

MY HEALTH IS OF GOD

THERE IS one cause, one mind, one consciousness: God, the living Spirit almighty. This created me out of Itself and is all that I am. God is my life, health, vitality and total perfect action. In me all this functions perfectly and completely. It is equal to every demand I make upon it. It is my source of constant renewing health.

My health this day is certain for the one life is the livingness of my body. I cooperate with my health in intelligent ways. I am wise in my handling of work, food, exercise and sleep. I maintain my consciousness in healthy attitudes. I watch the trends of my thinking and reject all that is unlike a healthy way of living.

I am not age, type nor heredity. I am Spirit and I am Truth. This present instant is alive with God as health. It is vital, refreshing and strong. I do all things with ease, accuracy and effectiveness. My radiant health is the joy of my consciousness. I praise the health that is mine.

THE HARMONY OF MY BEING SUSTAINS COORDINATED ACTIVITY

I RECOGNIZE that my wholeness includes the harmonious relationship of all my attributes. My vision, my thinking, my feeling and my actions sustain perfect coordination. I am free from frustrated beliefs because I am the conscious creator of my world of good, and harmony of being prevents inner conflict or confusion.

The divine ideal of my life finds its expression without resistance and without antagonism. The divine ideal brings through only the perfect expression, the perfect manifestation. I am the conscious awareness of right action. Harmony of being brings perfect coordination in those relationships that are meaningful and contribute to my larger experience. The law of my life eliminates any belief in obstruction or antagonism. Divine Mind maintains its own perfect way as me. I function from a level higher than ego. I am a conscious part of a cosmic mind which knows and maintains its perfect idea in all that it is.

I LOVE TO MAKE DECISIONS

THERE is That within me which loves to make decisions. It is Infinite Intelligence working through my Ideal Self. I am strong and decisive because I know the Intelligence within me always knows what to do and how to do it.

I recognize the need to be decisive so that subconscious mind has clear and definite direction. I know what I want, for I know Who and What I am. I am God's unlimited means to express Itself. I decide to decide, and so I release the Intelligence of God into my use of thought.

There is no challenge or problem that does not have the right answer. I choose to know the right answer. I make my claim upon subconscious mind that I am decisive and that I know all I need to know as I need to know it. My Ideal Self chooses every detail in my experience whether it be food, clothing, people or ideas. I am strong, vital and free to make the right decisions about everything that comes to my attention.

I KNOW MYSELF

I AM the infinite creative Principle of Mind expressing Itself and being consciously aware of Itself at this point in the universe. All knowledge, wisdom and intelligence is within me. I become consciously aware of whatever I desire to know as I turn within and ask for revelation.

I take time for meditation to ask and seek further knowledge of myself. I want to subjectify the knowing that I am a mental being, in place of false concepts of myself as a physical body.

I know that body reflects my beliefs and attitudes of mind so it is important to me to make changes in my thought patterns from false beliefs to my ever-expanding awareness of the Truth.

I accept my good as it continually unfolds from within myself. I enjoy every moment of life. The seeking and revelation of Truth is fun. I am grateful that I know myself as an expression of infinite Mind, infinite Life, Love and Intelligence. And so it is.

I PROJECT MY GRATITUDE

MY UNTROUBLED mind is aware of the magnitude of this moment, which never was before nor ever will be again. It is. Out of it I think from the universal totality of its regenerating power within me. Simpler has my faith become.

Lovingly I talk myself, thought by thought, into the best things in life I want to be and to have. They are not my goal to be attained by tiring strains and exhausting efforts. They are a beckoning, a call, an invitation made to me, unladen, to find them prepared for me. I was never the maker of gifts given me. Any gift given me existed before I accepted it.

Henceforth I refrain from after-thanks gratitudes. The thanks my heart feels are given to further directions I ask for, to guide myself into spiritual maturity. Also I thank my teachers, not for what they were, but for what they are livingly within my mind.

TRUTH COMMUNICATES ITSELF AS DIVINE ORDER

THERE IS only one Mind, which individualizes in all and communicates Its perfect ideas to all. Since I am Divine Mind expressed, I intuitively know the Truth. My innate ability enables me to distinguish between Truth and error and causes me to perceive life as unified action and Divine purpose.

Right now my perception is based on Truth, and this consciousness directs my thinking. Divine ideas clear any distorted concepts of discord and limitation. Perfect communication reveals the creative action of Spirit expressing in me. I am conscious of the pure intention of Divine Mind, which eliminates all belief in error. Divine Order is the function of my life. It transcends any disturbance and confusion. It brings spiritual alignment to my thinking and actions, as perfectly related ideas communicate the Truth of being. I am Divine consciousness expressed. This clear knowing establishes and projects Divine order in all that concerns me.

Marian G. Moon

CLEAR CORRECT KNOWING. Lesson Eleven PRAISE

PRAISE is a creative action of consciousness. It is necessary for healthy and happy living. It is spiritual appreciation. It is an acknowledgment that a power greater than the human mind has accomplished something good. It expands consciousness and invites new ideas for growth. Praise is a valuable asset in effective living. To be stingy with praise is to limit your consciousness.

Everyone needs and responds to praise. It is spiritual food for the mind. It increases the individual's sense of being valuable to life. Every person is important. Every person is divinely created. You can find something to praise in every relative, friend and business associate. It is there if you will seek for it.

Criticism is the opposite of praise. It is negative and destructive. It is indicative of a small mentality. If persisted in, it leads to chronic complaining. It stifles all the good that is seeking to express through the consciousness. All great spiritual teachers have taught the value of praise and warned their students against condemnation.

Religious Scientists watch their everyday thinking. They make certain that God, the one Mind, is governing their consciousness. They know the value of the scriptural admonition to praise the good. They practice this daily. They know that what you praise expands. They praise ideas for these are the starting place of all accomplishments. They praise their own minds for they have accepted the fact that the individual mind is a center in Divine Consciousness.

Praise is a prospering power. All writers on the subject of prosperity include this vital idea. The praising consciousness is a prospering consciousness, because praise quickens the inner resources of the spirit. It opens the mind to the good that already is. To give thanks is spiritually healthy.

TREATMENT

I rejoice in my own and other people's good. I seek it and find it. I praise this good and thank Life that it is so.

MY LIFE IS LOVING AND HARMONIOUS

GOD IS LOVE and I am the love that is God. Every person is created in God's image and embodies the love that is God. The Divine Love that we are is the harmonious bond that links all our productive thoughts and actions.

I am love and I express it at all times to the level of my constantly growing awareness and understanding. I feel and express the love that I am, producing love in all my relationships.

I perceive the loving Truth of all people. I express the love that I am with patience and courtesy, kindness and generosity. I am always sincere and unselfish. I love; therefore I do not fight, push or manipulate. I love; therefore I cannot resent, fear or criticize. I feel love for everyone. I cooperate with the flow of life, lovingly and harmoniously.

I am love and I express it. I am the good that is God, and I demonstrate this good. I accept happy, harmonious, loving relationships with all.

I AM DIVINELY EMPLOYED

I ACCEPT myself as that which is always in a divine employment. The one Mind creates, maintains and staffs every enterprise. I, knowing myself as a design of God, cannot be unused or misused. I work in order, peace and success. This is a true and exciting reason for my being at this point of eternity in this place, with certain people. It is wholeness and satisfaction to me to be a means for Infinite Intelligence to make Itself known in positive, visible ways. I am this visibility.

I am unique. No one fills my place. My next place even now is searching for me, finding me, fulfilling me. I put up no psychological or race belief barriers that something ahead is going to be hard. Consciousness is cause to what I want. I am Consciousness. I relax. God in me as me is me. My work is great and the results are far-reaching. I love being on top. I thank God for my employed, vital importance in the livingness of the Now.

THERE IS NO AGING

THE INFINITY of life is immeasurable. I am not subject to ideas of bodily aging which arise from mental bondage to the calendar's measuring of days, months and years. In the infinity of life there is no aging process. God, Infinite Life, has no beginning nor end. Spirit, the "I" that I am, can never age. The whole of creation, including my body, is in a continual process of change, but the "I" that I am never changes.

God, the ageless Spirit of ageless life, has clothed the "I" that I am — the image and likeness of Itself — in a perfect body. This perfect ageless life is aware of its own perfection in every atom, cell, organ and action of my being. My recognition of this truth releases the full power of this awareness to cleanse my mind of all false human beliefs in an aging body. The perfect spiritual body is revealed continuously as a youthful, dynamic, energized, perfectly operating instrument for the expression of the "I" that I am in every activity of my living as health, happiness and abundance.

THE VARIETY OF MY EXPERIENCES PERMITS NO DULLNESS

I KNOW that the one Mind always sustains great versatility as me. I have many ideas, many desires, many talents and many opportunities. I am not single-tracked in my thinking or in my ability. I am open to infinite ideas. Variety of interests prevents me from being narrow-minded or dull. Since Spirit is all-inclusive, every activity in life manifests interest and enthusiasm.

Just as I would not have an identical meal day after day, neither would I be dominated by limited ideas. I know a variety of ideas is necessary. This variety of ideas sustains my own self-interest in what I do. It keeps me constantly looking for new ways and methods so that each day's experience has richness and vitality. Just as many facets give the diamond its brilliance, so a constantly expanding variety of ideas brings greater interest to my livingness. I have many talents, a variety of interests, and inexhaustible depths of spiritual perception.

I AM CREATIVE

PERFECT GOD is in perfect action by means of me. I am the beloved individualization of all that Mind and Love are. The whole spirit of life created me as its outlet for greatness. I am equipped by Mind to create the goodness of life. This I do right here and right now. My thinking is creative and the results of it are wonderful.

I charge my consciousness with great ideas born out of the Infinite Mind. These ideas are practical and effective. As I contemplate these ideas I am directed to creative right action. I subconsciously accept them and think in their terms. They maintain my consciousness on the level of success. I am impelled to do the right thing at the right time and in the right way.

Divine Ideas in my present consciousness cause me to deal with new concepts. I create new conditions in my life which are greater than any I have produced before. I am a rejoicing soul. I welcome the new and fresh events of this day.

TODAY IS THE DAY
I ACCEPT MY GOOD

THIS IS the day which the Lord hath made. As I realize anew that the Lord or Law of my life is the Law of Mind, I know that today's experience is indeed the experience I create through the Law of Mind. This is the day, and now is the hour, of my good.

Knowing that I cannot relive yesterday or live in advance for tomorrow, I recognize the importance of now. What I create in my life I am creating right now. I respond to it right now, and I experience the results right now. I do not have to fear any limitations of my past use of mind, because everything is a now experience. As I choose to respond happily and joyously to life, that is a now decision which is bringing a happy and joyous experience now into my life. I release the past and welcome this day.

I here and now accept joy. I accept success, wealth, health, love and creative self-expression. I accept my good NOW. And so it is.

I CHOOSE TO LOVE

I CHOOSE to love, for God is love and God is Who and What I really am. I choose to give and so subconscious mind reveals great giving ideas within my conscious use of thought. I choose to love and so I see the good within every person who comes into my world.

As I permit God to express love through me, the law of mind immediately creates the opportunity to love. Regardless of who is in my world, that individual has qualities of God. I look for them and see them. I release preconceived or outdated concepts in my thought about that individualization of God, and the expression of love takes place.

As I decide to love I am free of angers, hurts and resentments of yesterday. I am at one with the forward flow of life. I give, and love is my now experience. I choose to love and I am automatically healed of every mental and physical limitation. I choose to love and I am free.

GOD IS THE LIGHT OF MY LIFE

THE PRESENCE of God is the light of my life. This light is both the energy and intelligence of my being. As energy it is the very substance of my body. As intelligence it is the illumination of my consciousness and guidance unto my way.

My body is actually alight with the light of God. Completely dissolved are any dark specters of disease, age or infirmity. Divine energy, flowing from its inexhaustible source, glows in every cell and pulsates in every function.

My consciousness is alight with the light of God. The darkness of human difficulties is shot through with the radiance of creative solutions. Life-giving ideas spark at the ideal instant. Wise decisions are clearly discerned and effortlessly made. Channels of right action open. Harmony and prosperity govern all the ensuing manifestations.

God said, "Let there be light." There is light here and now in me, as me and through me into every area of my life.

I AM FREE TO LIVE ANEW

AS I observe my world — my body, my finances, my work, my relationships — I am aware that I am not these effects; I am That which is aware of them. I am the consciousness that witnesses my life and understands that these circumstances arise from my use of Mind.

This knowledge allows me to be emotionally free of that which has been or that which is. I realize that my consciousness brought present and past circumstances into being and that my consciousness is continually changing as it grows in knowledge of the infinite, complete and powerful Mind that it is. My choices now are the result of my increased knowledge of the God-Self I am, and nothing prevents them from manifesting.

I do not cling to present good but gratefully let it change and grow into greater expressions of the qualities of God that it is. I accept new ideas for expanded living, and so I gain in happiness as I cooperate with Life as it evolves into greater expressions of itself. And so it is.

I RECOGNIZE THE DIVINE IDEAL IN ALL

THE NATURE of God is one of love and all-knowingness. That perfect knowing is made manifest in all that has come forth as a creation of God. I am a product of that creative action and therefore express all that is of God. I accept myself in the light of perfect manifestation. Everything that is a part of my life experience is there by right of my consciousness. My experience becomes ever more joyous and fulfilling as I grow in awareness of the inner Divine Ideal.

Inasmuch as I live on the basis of a love-consciousness, I serve people by reinforcing their beliefs in the Presence of God within them. I know that each person must find his or her own way. The consciousness of each must become attuned to the Divine Ideal. I affirm this Ideal within all. By this acceptance I add to the power which, in its unfolding, brings forth the evidence of that Ideal. Everyone is blessed, as I am, by my recognition of the nature of God in all.

MY HEALTH PLAN IS GOD'S PLAN

OUT OF the one divine and perfect energy-substance, came I. The universal Creator formed me out of that substance. I know that this Creator is still creating and maintaining Its creations in a right and perfect way.

Therefore, today I am performing today's work with one hundred percent efficiency. I feel wonderful physically, mentally and emotionally. Loving thoughts move through my mind and loving thoughts are moving from others and being received by me. I know that today I can move through the activities awaiting my attention on my program for the day and still allow time for other exciting adventures not programmed.

My health is God's health, therefore perfect. Every part of my physical body, patterned after the divine idea for me in the Mind of God, is intelligently working cooperatively with every other part, producing a perfect balance. I am enabled to move through this day with ease, joy, happiness and efficiency.

THROUGH THANKSGIVING I ACKNOWLEDGE AND ACCEPT

I KNOW that the thankful heart is the receptive heart. The thankful life is wide open for its expression of good. I am grateful for all the good that comes to me and rejoice in my ability to share it with others.

I do not give thanks automatically nor casually. I give thanks because it is the full acceptance from my heart recognizing and appreciating the infinite good. I give thanks because that which I accept, I share. I give thanks because life itself is the free circulation of perfect being. I love my good and rejoice in my good. I give thanks that I am able to perceive my good and that I have the ability to accept it. I give thanks that infinite Good, Infinite God, expresses through me.

I appreciate friends, business associates, and all the people in my life. I give thanks for the beauty that surrounds me. But greater than all this, I acknowledge that the Infinite Mind is the Infinite Thinker as me.

I AM FREE TO BE MYSELF

MY DIVINE SELF is my most precious inheritance. It is God in action in me as all that I really am. It reveals my uniqueness as a spiritual being. It urges me to be the Self which I can be. I gear my thinking in accordance with this truth. I recognize the great potentialities with which I am endowed and rejoice in them.

I reject all self-limitation. I am not that which I have been. I am that which I am at this moment, and what I am is great. I refute all thinking which would make me average. I am not interested in other people's opinion of me. I know the spiritual value of my own soul and I adhere to it without ceasing.

My consciousness is free to create the fresh and the different in my experience. It now does this with ease and with joy. I am free to be myself and leave all others free to be whatever they select to be. I am free, praise God, I am free.

MY WORLD IS WHOLE

EVERY portion of my world is complete, even as the physical world is complete. As every raw material for human well-being is present, within myself the spiritual material is present to come forth as fulfillment of every need.

I rejoice in the awareness that rightness responds to my call. I call, without any doubt that before I have called the form into manifestation, the deposit of its ingredients was made, awaiting my call. As spiritual being, I have the power to speak my word and let the word itself carry out the work.

I know that the order I desire in my experience is with me always. Success is normal for me; God never fails, and That which I am is God. I find that fresh inspiration flows to my point of mind-awareness, and I am continually shown better ways of living. I love and let the power of love flow through my heart and life to bless this day with warmth and comfort. My world is whole and harmonious.
