SCIENCE®

THOUGHTS FROM THE EDITOR . . .

THERE IS a priceless gift we can give to everyone younger than we are. It is the gift of inspiration. Two important people in my life are women in their 80's, who inspire me every time I see them. Why? Because they make the 80's look wonderful! These women are smiling, alert and achieving. I marvel at the good they do by their outreach of love and encouragement. I know by their actions that they have attained depths of understanding and heights of joy that I have not yet touched.

A person should never think he has outlived the world's need of him, for the older he is the more impact his constructive example has. How old are you? Whatever your age, by your eager participation in life you can show this stage of personal growth to be well worth all the efforts that led to it. Making the age we have reached look attractive is a great gift to those traveling the road of years to where we are.

Why Didn't I Think of That?

Robert H. Bitzer

EACH of us is a center of creative Intelligence whose progress depends upon personal initiative. Science of Mind is a participating activity, not a spectator study. It challenges us to do something new or different. Success requires initiative. The successful man seeks to expand his business. New products must be made available and new methods of distribution developed.

This is why it is important to work within your own consciousness. You are part of an infinite Intelligence; you are one with a Mind that knows. That Mind is all-revealing at the level of your receptivity. A new way never opens to the person who is thoroughly satisfied with what he is doing now. Nor does it generally open for the person who is grumbling and complaining. To expand, we accept the good that we have, and using our initiative we will insure continuous renewal and increase. We become mentally receptive to the new ideas that will bring this increase about.

Perhaps every invention has been due to man's desire to bring about greater efficiency. Through the automobile, man can get to his destination more quickly. The same is true of the jet or the supersonic plane. Spiritually, man wants to take less time to arrive at inner peace and tranquillity and to spend less time in doing what he has to do. This is where creative mind comes into action. The inventions that make life easier are instances of creative mind at work. Initiative gets us into action. It poses questions. How can I be more successful? What can I do to be saved from unpleasantness and difficulties? The answer is our mental acceptance of creative Mind at work. Our consciousness of efficiency can get rid of procrastination and slovenliness. Our consciousness of right knowing can bring vital information where we seemed in ignorance.

The realization of the one all-knowing Mind in us gets rid of doubt and uncertainty. Each person can develop initiative. Shyness and timidity are challenges to move into new experiences. Whatever has been thought or produced by anyone, no matter how brilliant the idea, can be equaled or surpassed by us. What if you are fearful — so what? Get going!

The Season of Light

Hal Bockoven

THIS IS the month we commemorate the birth of Christ, son of the living God, the Light that lighteth every man. This birth is eternally taking place. The son of Light is forever being born in us, illuminating our consciousness. The Christ is a Light in our hearts and minds that never grows dim.

Traditionally Christmas is the season of light when we symbolically pay tribute to the inner presence of Light. Light, metaphysically speaking, is symbolic of mental or inner illumination and intelligence. Jesus said, "I am the light of the world," which is to say that the Christ within each of us is the light of our world, or the intelligence to meet life and cope with our experience. In other words, we are illumined by the Spirit within us as to how to live effectively and fully. One of our greatest discoveries is that we do not have to go outside ourselves for illumination, because intelligence is as close as breathing.

Jesus represents God's Idea of man in expression. Christ is that Idea in the absolute, the perfect-Idea man. This Idea, or Christ, is in each of us, complete in every detail (the light that lighteth every man), awaiting our call upon it. When we call, divine intelligence answers and our whole being (experience) is full of light or vibrant spiritual energy. Perhaps at this Christmas season we can be more daring and trustfully declare our oneness with the Light, accepting the Jesus-Christ example as proof of the power of divine illumination. If we believe the historical account of his accomplishments, certainly they bear witness to a power and intelligence beyond the boundaries of material knowledge.

The power of universal mind is unlimited, and that great Light of divine intelligence continually lights our mental path because man is the active, expressive part of universal mind. Man partakes of its creative wisdom and power by working and thinking in harmony with it. By so doing, he can do anything, have anything or be anything. There is a divine plan for each person, written in Light within. This Christmas, let us give birth to a new awareness of that Light.

Of Course You Can

Tom Johnson

ANYONE can do anything. Of course you can. All you have to do is to know what you want and then look within yourself for all that you need. It is all where you are. We are unfortunately accustomed to looking outside of ourselves for what we desire, and as a result we may seldom find what we are looking for. Within you are the intelligence, the power and all the resources you could possibly use. When you believe there is something within you that knows what to do and how to do it, then you know you will succeed in your goals, for the law of mind automatically fulfills that which you know and believe. If you believe you can do anything, you can.

Your belief will bring into consciousness all the information you need. It will guide and instruct your way. You can do anything, providing you realize that whatever God can do for you God must do through you. The very moment you act as though it were so, it is so. Infinite Mind backs you up all the way. The more you are aware of the Genius within you, the more this Genius is free to express Itself through you. If you are not aware of It, how can It be aware of the channel that you are? You can do anything when you recognize Who and What you really are. The more you turn to your inner Self, the more you refer to It, the more quickly and surely you will know all that you need to know.

Announce to the law of subconscious mind, "I can!" When you do this, you can, because the universe always supports your desire for progress. You are making a demand upon Mind, and for every demand there is all that is required to bring it into experience. Make your demands upon your inner Self. It is unlimited. It knows what to do. As you build total confidence in your inner Self, you learn to depend upon it completely. There is nothing It cannot do. Therefore there is nothing you cannot do. You can be the more that you want to be. Of course you can.

A spiritual power is released through true thinking that is as much a law as is chemical affinity. There is no deliverance of the real self without mental conviction. To have faith in God is to follow this faith through by having faith in the self. The real self is God and as such is to be implicitly trusted.

Ernest Holmes

Knowing God — A Meditation —

Richard J. Green

THERE IS something within me which presses unceasingly to be acknowledged, to be contemplated, to be comprehended. I recognize that impelling impression to be God. I am endowed with the capacity to know the truth about God, and that capacity enables me to contemplate Its attributes, comprehend Its magnitude and embrace Its goodness.

I know that my God is not a static, complacent anthropomorphic deity demanding praise, but rather an energetic, expressive formless spirit giving love. I know that my God loves me, not because I love It, but simply because It chooses to love me. I know that my God is where I am. I do not have to go to God; I merely turn to God in thought. The instant I turn to God in thought, I am unified with God in Mind.

My God is not possessed of a human personality that laughs and cries, likes and dislikes. Neither is It beset with the human obsessions of rage, scorn and vindictiveness. It is not a coercive force with a punitive will, but a loving creator of divine intent. My God designed life not as a bewildering mystery in order to conceal Itself from man, but rather as an orderly, comprehensible process in order to reveal Itself to man. It reveals to me Its image and nature. Its image is invisible, formless intelligence. Its nature is unconditioned love, absolute intelligence, eternal life, unopposed power, perfect peace, undefiled beauty and profound joy.

I know that the qualities of my God are my ever-present verities, that God's eternal life is the source of my being, that God's unconditioned love indwells me as I endeavor toward spiritual maturity, that God's absolute intelligence reveals to me what I need to know the moment I need to know it, that God's perfect peace is the ease with which I do everything I choose to do, that realizing God's unopposed power fortifies my trust in the Law, that God's undefiled beauty is the Presence clearly perceptible through the distorting glare of man's inventions, that profound joy is the kingdom of God here and now.

God has revealed Itself to me. In my consciousness I have an irrefutable understanding that in "Him" I do live, I do move, and I do have my being.

Perception of Perfection

Joseph J. Bayer

THE BRILLIANT light that heralded the birth of Jesus teaches us symbolically that perception precedes understanding of Truth. Perception means awareness, acquired either intuitively or through the senses. When the automobile first made its appearance people perceived its contour and the way it performed, but only as they became associated with it, used it and became interested in it, did they gain enough understanding of it to make place for it in their living.

A person must first "see" or "get the idea of" anything, and having "seen" it he must make a place for it in himself. He does this by repeated mental association with the new and desired ideas, the fresh concepts, until they displace his old thoughts and beliefs in the old or lesser ideas.

Awakening to, perceiving, the Truth that he is really a spiritual being, that his true Self is the incarnation of the Divine and that he is thus heir to all good, a person need no longer live in darkness of doubt, despair and fear, for the Light, the understanding of Truth, reveals eternal life, love and joy. The darkness of false belief in sickness, poverty, limitation and sorrow has no power. The Light of Truth reveals the individual's wholeness and opulence.

The new consciousness of the individual is not one of creation but of perception, of seeing. He must believe, accept and use that which he perceives to be the Truth. He must look through every form and condition and see the Perfect, the Divine Presence, ready to appear. He must behold the Light of wholeness that is the reality, the spirit, of every person and every condition.

The Divine made man perfect, and regardless of negative experiences this perfection still prevails as his heritage. As the Son of God, man can always return to the Father's house. Our perception and acceptance of our Divine Nature, of the Perfection we individualize, assures our expression of good, for this standard is then our sustained mental attitude, our habit of thought, which always takes form and condition in our body and affairs.

I FULFILL MY PURPOSE

MY PURPOSE in life is to develop spiritually, continually revealing that which I really am, and to share that which I am with others. In order that my purpose may be fulfilled Life needs me well, happy, prosperous and loving.

Life gives me the means of my fulfillment. I use this creative faculty now with inner wisdom. In a spirit of love I develop and give of the only thing I have to give: myself. I put my attention firmly now on my purpose and know that as I develop awareness of my Real Self I have more to give. As I give, I grow and have yet more to give.

Health, prosperity, love and joy are natural to my self-expression, natural to spiritual self-development and natural to Life's purpose. I accept them as the natural order of the universe and as my natural state of being now. I return to Life that which Life gives me in trust. With a sense of joy I know that this is so.

I TRUST THE CREATIVE PRINCIPLE OF MIND

THERE IS only one Mind and It is infinite. Life, Love, Intelligence, Knowledge and Power are ingredients of the one Mind. Since Mind is all there is, I am all that It is. Within me is everything I need to know. There is a perfect pattern for perfect body and I accept this perfection as my body — my instrument for the expression of Life, Love and Intelligence.

I know that thought is cause to experience; therefore, I clear my mind of all thoughts of rejection, fear and guilt. I know that the Creative Principle of Mind will give me, without judgment as to whether my choice is good for me or not, whatever I choose in thought. I have the responsibility to select the kind of experiences I want and to give direction to Mind. I know that this loving Principle honors my desires always.

There is no time involved in my demonstration. I accept my good right here and right now. I trust the Law of Mind always. And so it is.

I AM A SOURCE OF CREATIVE ENERGY

I AM right now an unlimited source of the creative energy of the universe. All the power I ever need is already within me and I consciously and intelligently use that power in all my daily affairs for greater self-growth and self-expression. There is no fuel crisis in my life. There are no brownouts or blackouts. I refuse to waste a single unit of my God-generated power in the production of negative experiences.

No area of my being is untouched by the light of Truth from my power center. There are no dark corners and no hidden passages. I focus the light on every thought pattern and instantly obliterate any concepts that cause shadows to fall on my path. No thieves in the night can scale the walls of my world undetected.

Every activity today is powered by the unfailing supply of right ideas. All my relationships are joyous expressions of God in action. I am switched on to the unlimited Divine source which is the power grid of my life.

I AM THE FULL CAPACITY TO EXPRESS THAT WHICH IS MINE TO EXPRESS

I GIVE full value to whatever I do because I know that my task is mine. No one else will ever do what God Mind has given me to do, nor can I ever rightfully do that which belongs to somebody else to do. My unique task is done by me, for I alone can fulfill it. I accept the heritage bestowed upon me for I accept the stewardship of this divine, unique idea. With great joy, love and mastery of consciousness I rise to every occasion and fulfill every demand that is made upon me.

I am fearless, for I am confident that all power is given to me as the need arises. I do not have to concern myself with emergencies nor unexpected contingencies, because I know that the one Mind provides me with the necessary answer even before the appearance. Everything necessary is included in this divine idea; therefore I act with courage and confidence, because my idea is endowed with everything necessary to bring it through to its perfect and complete manifestation.

ALL ARE FOR ME BECAUSE I AM FOR THEM

AS EVERY person in my world comes into thought or into experience, I know for him or her the completeness of life. I know that each is an active concept of health, prosperity, love and success. What I think radiates outwardly to prepare the way for rich and creative experience.

The irresistible law of attraction brings into my world those individuals who correspond with my level of consciousness. All in my world are for me because I am for them. I seek and know only the highest good for all and so those who remain in my experience know the same for me.

There is one Power as life, and therefore that Power is the reality of every person everywhere, including me. I actively am aware of the fullness of life within all, regardless of what the outer picture may seem to be. I bless all because that is the only way God can know Itself by means of me. I open the door to full communication by means of the Truth that I know for all.

Tom Johnson

Friday, December 6

I AM CENTERED IN TRUTH

AT THIS moment I accept the Truth of my being. I am able to see beyond facts and perceive the Truth, which has always been there needing only my perception, awareness and acceptance.

There is only one Truth for me. That Truth is the core of my being. I am uniquely expressing God at my level of consciousness. I am necessary to the expression of God. I cannot be anything but God expressing. That is my Truth, and I deny anything that seems to contradict it.

I rely on this Truth to guide me in all areas of my life. It is from this consciousness that I operate. Therefore, all my affairs are in order, God-like. All my relationships are harmonious, God-like. My health is radiant and my abundance is unlimited, God-like. I am loving in all I do, God-like.

I am wondrously made in the image and likeness of God. I am forever centered in this Truth. I give thanks that this is so. And so it is.

MY CONSCIOUSNESS IS CREATIVE

MY CONSCIOUSNESS is a function of the Divine Mind. In it are all the ideas of that Mind. In it is the very Love of God. In it is all possibility of accomplishment. I am totally endowed with inspiration, courage and the will to do that which is right. This is my high calling and I am worthy of it.

I discipline my consciousness in right action to bring forth the right results I have decided to experience today. I am not concerned with negatives except to immediately release them from my thought. They have no permanency in my consciousness. I think what I want and want what I think. I make certain that only right ideas have my attention.

I expand my expectations of what God can do by means of me. I expect the best of everything to be mine. I now accept the best of everything as being mine. I create the best of everything through my thinking. All that I am and all that I do is creative and beneficent.

I EXPAND MY EXPERIENCE OF LIFE

EVERY good and perfect gift is from the Source of life, and has been given to me already. Before I have been aware of my need for love, love was present and waiting my desire to be loved. I am set free in the love of the universe for me.

Everything I have need of is awaiting my call into manifestation. The joys of living unfold with my trusting call. Newness of joy is measured out to me beyond my ability to imagine, but I do know that it is God showering good into my experience. I steadily increase my ability to experience God.

I know that it is natural to feel easy and confident. I feed thoughts of positive right action into my thinking. I do not ignore problems but delight in taking them apart with my knowledge that I am master of all things as I am master of my thinking. I expand my thought to accept the endless wonders awaiting my ability to receive them. I enjoy each day and its unfolding good.

Juanella Evans

Monday, December 9

I AM SECURE

THE LOVE that is God is present everywhere, guiding, aiding and protecting all who accept this love. I am of God; I am a spiritual being. I am the love that is God. The power that is God-Mind is lovingly protecting me at all times.

I recognize that I am divine. I am peace. I am love. I accept these qualities as me now. I feel the love that I am; I am at peace. Serenely, assuredly, I feel the divine protection enveloping me. No evil, no harm can reach me as I release all false thoughts of separation from God. God and I are one. The intelligent power that is God is my bulwark against any possible misfortune. The thrust of any person, circumstance or situation fails against my armor, God-power.

I am secure. I am at ease in the feeling of security that I now accept. Joyously I move through life, feeling love for all, protected by my divinity.

William Wightman

I AM IN THE CLEAR

GOD IS SPIRIT. Of Its Self-thought, I am. It lifts my mind from bondages into freedom, from timidities into boldness, from passive mediocrity into individual creative action.

As Consciousness I am no cog in the machinery of human existence. I am an impact upon my inner, personal only-ness. The attention which the Infinite Mind of God gives to Itself is the texture of my soul. Its response to the promptings of the indwelling Spirit loosens and erases the clutchings of impotent human race-thought. In the clear I choose to enact what I conceive to be and to utilize what goes with it. I live in the freedom in which I let the Law act out fulfillments under my direction. I rejoice in attending to the business of Being. As Spirit I see how all things come to pass.

Allied with the principle of growth, rooted in the Spirit considering Itself as the cause of all there is, I AM.

Fritz Hermanns

I GREET EACH DAY WITH ENTHUSIASM

I GREET this day with enthusiasm as I identify myself with the Life Principle and Creative Power. From this inner recognition of who and what I am, I let this Power flow through me to strengthen and heal. Nothing in my consciousness can resist the good as I work with the Principle that knows no limitation.

I know I am an individualization of God love, life and power. I am aware of God as all the good there is. This awareness manifests in my life now as joy, success, understanding and perfect self-expression. I know this Power is the source of my health, supply and happiness.

Right activity is taking place in all my affairs, for I behold the allness of God in everything I do. Wherever I may go, whatever I may do, nothing can stop my progress as I am strengthened by the Power of Life through the Spirit of Love within me. I give thanks that this is so, and let it be so now.

Gretchen F. Bremermann

Thursday, December 12

MY THINKING HAS ORIGINALITY

I AM NOT bound by traditional thinking, for the one Mind gives me originality. Each day I have new concepts and new ideas regarding what I can be. I do not mold each day into the pattern of the past but bring some new element into every day, even to things I have mastered well. I know that life constantly unfolds new thoughts for new experiences. I am an active, creative thinker. I am constantly bringing forth new ideas to express my true desire.

I do not spend my time reacting to situations, for I am the actor. I create new business each day. I create new opportunities. I bring forth experiences that I have never had before. Growth and expansion reveal to me new concepts which I can express. My life is not the replica of yesterday's pattern but is fulfilling today's creativeness. I am not repeating experiences; I am the original creator of new experiences now. I am the new thinker with new thoughts and new experiences. I am the Divine thinker of my own thoughts.

WHOLENESS MANIFESTS AS MY HEALTH

RIGHT NOW I realize my oneness with the All-Good. Right now I realize my wholeness, which is the perfection of God in me. Right now I am aware that this consciousness of wholeness manifests as my total health. I let God's perfect Life express itself as my perfect being. I declare and accept that every organ is perfect in God, that every organ is spiritual, indestructible and sound.

I understand to the fullest that all action is God-action, and this understanding erases all fear and lifts my consciousness into the All-Good, All-Harmonious, All-Loving realm of being. Life, God's perfect Life, constitutes all there is and it functions effortlessly and harmoniously in every aspect of my life.

My realization that Spirit operates through me as me releases luminous energies which stream forth from the center of my consciousness into every atom, cell and organ. My thoughts are transformed by higher vision and my body is healthy. I know that right where I am, God IS.

Ruth Lambek

PROSPERITY IS MINE TO ENJOY

I ACCEPT my highest and innermost good. The garden of Eden echoes in the stillness of my mind. I live in a prosperous universe. I accept and recognize money as the invisible realm of God's riches made visible. In God there is no lack. I accept financial prosperity as my Divine birthright.

"I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." I rejoice! I move forward confidently with praise for my ever-expanding good . . . and to God the glory! I place no limitations on my capacity to demonstrate the abundant life. Daily I grow in my awareness as I accept more livingness for myself.

I partake of the bounties before me. I am open and receptive to greater good. All that I AM stems from the one loving, giving Source. Daily I give praise! I reap the harvest of my own receptivity. The garden of Eden echoes in the stillness of my mind and reveals its boundless glorious, lavish riches in my NOW.

WHERE I AM, GOD IS

IN THE OMNIPRESENCE of the Infinite Mind I am forever established. Always I am Its beloved individualization of Itself. Unto me God gives the fullness of Its being. Within my consciousness is this perfect activity of right ideas. It is the source and the supply of all that I need for efficient living. I draw upon this inner wealth of the Spirit and I demonstrate in perfect ways all the good I want.

Omnipotence fills full my consciousness with Its clear knowing of my abilities to prosper. I am able to do what I want to do. I am upheld in my right decisions by this Power which gives of Itself. My right thinking and disciplined feeling pay off in rich dividends.

I rejoice in my right living. My whole attention is focused on what is right and what is true. I reject all fear, and creative faith governs my consciousness. I cannot be disturbed by negatives. I am in God, the eternal Mind that loves me and approves all that which I do.

Raymond Charles Barker

I AM SERENE IN MY CERTAINTY OF GOOD

THERE IS only One (God, Spirit, Life, Mind – whatever we call It) and I am an individual expression of that One. Everything in my life is intended for my good, my happiness and my growth in understanding. No person nor thing can block my progress, for I know the Truth regardless of facts and appearances. I see the One in everyone I meet, everywhere I go and in everything I do. I see the Truth through all situations, for my consciousness is centered on the One, and the One upholds me in right thinking throughout this day.

I know the power of the spoken word, and my words this day bless everyone, everything and every experience that comes my way. I keep my thoughts focused on what I want to do. I am in control of my life and my world; nothing outside of myself has any power over me. I feel an all-pervading serenity in my life and in the world around me. and I rejoice in this serenity now.

I MAKE DECISIONS CONFIDENTLY.

I AM the Wisdom of God individualized and made manifest. The roots of my being are established in the rich and omnipotent Mind of God. All that I am is the product of God thinking through me. God is the Power that puts life into the ideas I entertain.

I am now host to only those ideas that bring forth experiences of abundance, joy, peace and love. The power of God Mind, within me, unfolds the full potential of every thought I give place to in my mind. My effective living is evidence of my awareness that the wisdom of Universal Intelligence is in action through me.

I know my decisions are right for me at the place where I am in consciousness. As they carry the creative power of the universe, they are able to manifest in the instant that I accept them. My decisions activate the power that propels ideas into form. Radiating the light and power of Mind, and abiding in the tranquillity of infinite Love, I make decisions confidently and move forward into my greater good.

CLEAR CORRECT KNOWING . . . . Lesson Twelve . . . . THE WONDER OF LIFE

LIFE is wonderful for those who find the wonder in it. Those content with drab lives and average experiences miss the glory of being alive. Life fully experienced is glorious, and the fullness of life is available to everyone. It has no restrictions of age, money availability or circumstance. It is a Divine Givingness which needs only to be mentally grasped and then brought to fruition by correct spiritual thinking. Christmas is the yearly reminder that every man and woman was spiritually conceived and is the living representative of that Life which is the wonder of all uplifted experience. Christmas re-defines what you are, bids you to find the Self which you are and to give from that center of consciousness. The Self is the light of your world. It is that which inspires, heals and prospers.

Birth is a continuity. It is not a date. It is Creative Consciousness active in all who are really interested in living life richly. It takes place in every second of time and in every point in space. It is Mind announcing Itself as new ideas. It is the eternal invitation to expand consciousness and thereby expand experience. Only new ideas can keep you alerted to the wonder of being. Repetitive ideas maintain the present and gradually calcify it. Fresh ideas are the doorways to the future of greater consciousness. They keep the mind flexible and expectant. They make certain your freedom from that which has been, for they indicate that which can be if you follow through on their inspiration and direction.

You are a mental and emotional process. You are not a fact. You are the Infinite making obvious Itself by means of you as Its consciousness here and now. You are an amazing unique individuality with all possibility. You can experience the wonder of life and the fullness of love. You can always emerge from the past and be free in the now. All Life, Mind and Love are on your side welcoming you into the wonder of it all.

Treatment

I seek and find the wonder of life. I rejoice in my new birth at this instant. So it is.

THE SUCCESS PROCESS.

I GIVE AND RECEIVE THE HIGHEST GOOD

REGARDLESS of what the situation may be, there is That within me which knows how to give creatively to it. Wherever I am there is a Power within me that is seeking to be expressed. It is God as me. I release It into the active expression of Itself, and so order is established, love is shown, and every person in my experience becomes aware of his or her God-Self. God by means of me neither argues nor defends. It heals and inspires merely by Being.

I let go of ego and permit the Inner Perfection to announce Itself. It knows how to bring out the best in others because It is always contacting Itself within them. My purpose is not to change other people but to reveal this Inner Self. Merely by what I think about myself and about others, I awaken within all a desire to give the highest of themselves. I give the highest of my thought and expression, and the highest good is what I receive from all.

Tom Johnson

JOY MAKES ME POROUS TO SPIRIT

I AM a joyful person, and all who contact me this day are healed, blessed and prospered because joy makes me porous to Spirit. I refuse to entertain any negative thoughts of gloom or despair. Instead I live in the high consciousness that a cheerful disposition acts as a tonic and is the quickest way to complete my demonstration.

I know that when I live in tiptoe expectancy of the best, then only the best can come to me. I make it a point throughout this day to greet everyone I meet with a smile and a cheerful word of encouragement, because I know the world is hungry for this.

I do with a light heart every task that comes to hand, knowing that in this way seeming burdens become challenges to meet and enjoy as something accomplished and well done. I realize the truth that when I change my thinking from the negative to the positive, the whole world sings with me and I am glad.

Naomi Le Roith

I AM POSITIVE, AFFIRMATIVE GOOD

I LIVE in the joyous expectation that my good comes to me and that only good can come to me. I am conscious of all that is right with me and recognize all that is right with my world. I am not a whiner nor do I attract whininess as part of my experience. The truth of my being eliminates grumbling and dissatisfaction. The truth about me knows rightness; therefore it excludes anguish and grief. I expect things to work out right and they do. I expect the people with whom I deal to bring forth their best effort and they do.

Wherever I go, rightness governs and things do work out right. I expect cooperation and receive it. I give forth the best that I have and it is accepted. I expect to expand my consciousness in every experience and I do expand. The law of my life is one of limitless being, and each day I am aware of new opportunities for its expression. I am positive and constructive in affirming and expressing this good.

I AM ENRICHED IN EVERYTHING

THERE IS one infinite Giver eternally giving. There is one action, the action of God, the fullness of Life forever flowing into form. I am one with Life, one with God, one with the action of God. The crystal clear fountain of Being is bubbling up through my consciousness becoming my expression in shape and substance.

In the rich awareness of this truth, I prize my body. With exultation I glory as Life vibrates in every cell, nerve, organ and function of this magnificent instrument. I appreciate my emotional being, the capacity to feel Life. With elation I let the love, peace and joy of the infinite Giver have full sway in my heart. Color and beauty thus radiate into every action. It is great to be alive. I cherish my capacity to think. With enthusiasm I let my mind expand creative, constructive ideas, knowing that the great Law is translating them into action.

Through my every feeling and thought flows thanksgiving to the infinite Giver for LIFE.

I EXTEND MY BLESSING TO ALL

INOW still my outer mind and feel the Presence of God within me. I am warmed by this Presence of total harmony, in which I now establish my day. As I am filled to overflowing with the blessing of life, love and peace, I reflect it to everyone.

I pause this moment and say silently to my family, "God bless you." I bless those with whom I work, remembering that I am loving the Divine Presence in them and not their outer personalities. I extend my silent goodwill to the heads of state, who affect the destinies of nations. I say to each leader, "God is blessing you and guiding you now in all things." For all people everywhere who seem troubled and depressed, I affirm the Presence of inner peace which dispels doubt and unhappiness. I say silently to them, "God is all and all is right with you."

With renewed faith in the goodness of life, I let this be so. And I rejoice in this wonderful day of sharing a warm feeling of love with all.

MY LIFE IS WONDERFUL

MY LIFE is rooted and grounded in the Divine Presence out of which the good alone can manifest. I am a spiritual being in a spiritual experience experiencing the demonstrations of the spirit within me. All good is mine to think, feel and have. This Presence knows no limitations and has conceived me out of Itself to know and have freedom in all situations.

I deliberately deny and eliminate from my subconscious mind all false restrictions and all negative speculations. These are now inoperative in my consciousness. I am free to be all that I want to be and what I want to be is glorious. Perfect God within me activates my mind and directs my emotions. This is the greatest day of my life.

I accept myself as that which I really am: a fulfilled, rejoicing individual. I am the health of God. I am the love of God. I am the wealth of God. I am the glory of God. This right knowing sustains me in right action. I give thanks for this truth.

CHRISTMAS IS MY STAR OF SELF-AWARENESS

I AM living as an idea of Mind in the Christmas of that Mind. Because God is all there is, It is in these moments of sparkle, joy and peace. Spirit indwells me with the richness of giving and receiving. It is unlimited in Its understanding of these times. I am Its understanding. It is delightful and takes form in every greeting. The gifts of Life are forever available and I magnify them in new ways. My ways are unique, loving and Mind-directed.

No other person's concept of this season can mar or distort the beauty of what it is. Christmas is the appearing of Good in the activities of men. It crowns my work and the achievements of others with the star of Self-awareness. In that brightness there is no doubt, no criticism. The Self of Divine Love shines in every situation where I move. I am the Christmas that is needed, expected and found. I embrace both hope and fruition, and the truth of my Being fulfills them. Consciousness is my Christmas and it is wonderful.

I AM REBORN TO THE REALIZATION OF PERFECTION

IN THE STILLNESS of my inner being I joyfully recognize and accept my Real Self as the Christ, the true Child of the Divine. Thus the Christ — the Presence of all good, of completeness and wholeness of life, love, health, joy, power, wisdom, peace and opulent supply — is again born in my mind and becomes a reality to me as the ever-present gift of the Divine.

Many times each day I bring myself back to this realization of what I am and have. Thus the Christ, my Real Self, is born again and again in my realization. I find that the true Christmas takes place in me, for all the gifts of Good, which could be my Savior, are mine for the accepting.

I accept for myself all the Good that I feel would bless and save me: health, love, freedom, intelligence, beauty, joy, power, peace, supply and right action in all my affairs. Also I behold the True Self — the Christ — in everyone else, even as I accept it for myself.

I LIVE IN PERPETUAL PEACE

AS WITHIN the hurricane there is a quiet center, so there is within all my activity a center of peace. I am alive, awake and aware of the presence and power of peace, always with me, constant and unfailing. I let my awareness of perpetual peace accumulate as I diligently woo the attitude of peaceful achievement in life. I love to live and express the peace at my inner center. I move into action, convinced by the peace that passes all understanding. I have no need to fear outcomes. I stand still until the principle of true peace moves me into right activity.

I do not fear stagnation; I know that growth beyond set patterns is wholesome, and I daily extract myself from any rigid belief that limits my expansion. There is a pattern for my joyous livingness which contains no stress nor strain. That harmonious pattern moves through my consistent faith. I provide faith, the visibility ingredient, as I cultivate my faithfulness to the law of life. I know that all is well, and my expression is of That which IS always well.

I THINK AND SPEAK WHOLENESS

I AM the active, deliberate and positive action of peace and success. I release all tension as I turn to my full acceptance of Truth and nothing but the Truth. I am progressive at all times, for my understanding of the principles of Truth is a growing, expanding and active experience.

I cannot be beguiled into accepting any problem or belief in limitation, because the Truth knows none of these. I actively think, speak and express freedom, health, wealth and success always. I am actively aware of the Presence of God, and Truth is automatically revealed.

Mine is the consciousness of God, and so I suspend all judgment of the world. Every seeming appearance of lack is my golden opportunity to affirm the Truth of the abundance of God. I release all that is not in harmony with my God-Self and declare the perfection of God as All. I accept no belief in failure or that which is less than complete, for my purpose is to reveal the wholeness of God at all times.

HEALTH IS MY HERITAGE

HEALTH IS my Divine heritage. I am not in bondage to beliefs in the inheritance of disease or weaknesses of any kind. I do not claim human ancestry but trace my ancestry to Divine Mind. I am a Spiritual being made in the image and after the likeness of God; therefore I have a right to claim for myself "a spirit of love and of power and of a sound mind." This Divine idea includes within it a sound and healthy body.

God has given me the ability to think, and I accept my responsibility of thinking the right kind of thoughts so that error cannot creep in and lay its insidious hold on my mind. I maintain eternal vigilance over my consciousness, knowing that the more I embrace my oneness with Divine Mind the easier it becomes to think health, joy, protection, prosperity and whatever is for my highest good. I am thankful for wholesome food, work, friends and sound sleep. My well balanced life and right thinking keep me in perfect health.

Erna Wissmann

Sunday, December 29

I AM SECURE WHEREVER I AM

I KNOW that the one Mind endows its ideas with all the power necessary to produce the divine intent. Nothing can disrupt this perfect expression. No belief or action could do anything to interfere with the freedom of expression which I am. At all times the action of the divine idea which I am operates in perfect freedom. Nothing can assail it, nothing can molest it, nothing can antagonize it. The divine idea is all power-full, and I am that idea in its perfect being.

My consciousness of the one Presence protects and guards. I proceed in perfect safety because the limitless power of the God idea which I am constantly surrounds me and pushes through me into its harmonious right expression. There is nothing to fear, because I am the enforcement of the God idea consciously knowing itself. I am constantly being that which it is, wherever I am, for I know that Spirit is changeless regardless of what experiences might reflect. I speak the perfect word knowing I am secure in wisdom, in love and in understanding.

I AM A PERFECT EXPRESSION OF GOD

THIS DAY is God's day. It is filled with God's beauty and great good. Everywhere I look I see God's beauty. With every snowfall I marvel at this beauty. As I watch the snowflakes float down I realize each one is unique and perfect. They float down together in ease and perfect harmony, each being its true self as the individual expression of God, each in its right place doing its perfect work.

Like a snowflake, I too am the unique, perfect expression of God. I am made of divine substance. I am expressing in my true place. I do not allow resentment of people or situations to operate in my consciousness. I do not compare myself with any other person. I have a good relationship with all people. I am in harmony with all as I go about my own business of living from the true God-center within me.

I am beautiful, joyous, harmonious and perfect in every way. I accept myself as God's means to bring great beauty and good into this day.

Virginia Wightman

I LOOK AHEAD

THE ACTION of God is always now, and I am a vehicle for this now action. In my consciousness Mind is in total action in this day. I release the year that is finishing. Both its triumphs and its problems have added to my wisdom. As the curtain falls on that which has been, I welcome that which shall be.

I refuse to review the hurts and problems of the past year. My consciousness is saturated with the expectation of the fullness of life, love and beauty. I am set free of all mental and emotional impediments. I proceed with the business of living in positive ways. I am upheld in this decision by all the Good there is.

I let new ideas and new concepts take over my consciousness. These direct my thinking and my actions into expanded demonstrations of this teaching which I accept and practice fully. I let Love love by means of me. I let the greatness of all that I can be happen to me. I rejoice in this day.
